

THE PATH OF THE LOTUS FLOWER

2nd Phase: The creative process as blooming

OPEN SPACE INSTALLATION WORKSHOP

Led by Antonella Diana, scenographer at Teatret OM and visual artist, in collaboration with Vinterlys Festival 2027

PROJECT THEME:

"Out of Scale" – in line with the theme of Vinterlys Festival 2027.

OBJECTIVE:

To create a sustainable and compostable installation at Fredskoven, Skjern (near Skolebyen / Skjern Gymnasium). The artwork is intended to evolve and transform with the changing seasons and the lights during Vinterlys festival 2027.

The workshop invites 20 participants to collaboratively build a large-scale artwork using natural materials, afterwhich it will be a base for a permanent structure at Fredskoven, Skjern, which will be part of the forest experience for visitors from the nearby schools or visitors.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Nature lovers, gardening enthusiasts, artists of all disciplines and experience levels.

CREATIVE PROCESS:

The installation will be pre-designed by Antonella Diana and realized by participants during the workshop. The artwork is intended to evolve and transform with the changing seasons, offering a new enchanting form each time.

MATERIALS:

Only natural and sustainable materials will be used, with a special focus on willow.

PARTICIPATION:

The workshop is part of the program supported by Kultur og Fritid in Ringkøbing-Skjern Kommune.
